

Week 1: Creative Writing (23 November to 27 November 2026)

Help your child to build their creativity in this engaging, interactive writing focused week. Learners will develop their story writing skills as they look at all the elements of writing effective stories. They'll learn the language, organisational features, and tips and tricks to make their narratives shine. They'll also develop their communication, collaboration, and creativity as they work with their classmates to create a class storybook!

Time	Monday 23 November	Tuesday 24 November	Wednesday 25 November	Thursday 26 November	Friday 27 November
	Topic: Introduction	Topic: Settings	Topic: Characters	Topic: Story Writing	Topic: Publishing
9.00 a.m to 1.00 p.m	By the end of the course students will: • Identify the key elements of a story • Describe a setting • Develop characters • Plan and develop plot • Use literary techniques to enhance their creative writing • Plan, draft, revise and publish their writing
	Outcome: Produce a story plan	Outcome: Write a setting paragraph	Outcome: Create a character description poster	Outcome: Write a first draft of a story	Outcome: Redraft and publish your story

Week 2: Speak Up: A Debating and Presentation Skills Course (30 November to 4 December 2026)

Take your child's presentation and debate skills to the next level with our presentation and debating week. First your child will learn about the organisational, linguistic and delivery features of presentations. Next, they'll move onto learning about formal debating, where'll they learn to research, structure and present an effective argument. This communication focused course will help them build the confidence to share their ideas, and to argue effectively. While focused on speaking, they'll be able to transfer these skills to their compositions and comprehension tasks in the future.

Time	Monday 30 November	Tuesday 1 December	Wednesday 2 December	Thursday 3 December	Friday 4 December
	Topic: Organising a presentation	Topic: Presenting	Topic: Introduction to formal debates	Topic: Planning for a debate	Topic: The Debate
9.00 a.m to 1.00 p.m	By the end of each day, learners will have • understand the structure and language used in a presentation • developed digital literacy and research skills • learn useful language for formal debate • understand the rules of debating • develop collaboration skills as they work in a team to debate a motion
	Outcome: Plan the outline of a presentation	Outcome: Research and give a presentation	Outcome: Plan and write first speakers dialogue	Outcome: Plan your arguments for the debate	Outcome: Deliver a debate

Week 3: Writing for the Future: Fiction and non-fiction writing skills (7 December to 11 December 2026)

This engaging, interactive writing focused week will take learners through a range of texts need for their future academic success. Learners will grow their fictional and non-fictional writing skills as they relate stories to both global issues and their real-world experience. Each day will provide a new context to guide them towards producing a new type of work, with different features and language explored on the way. They'll leave the week excited to continue writing, and with feedback on five pieces of writing.

Time	Monday 7 December	Tuesday 8 December	Wednesday 9 December	Thursday 10 December	Friday 11 December
	Topic: Factual Recounts	Topic: Narratives	Topic: Information Reports	Topic: Expositions	Topic: Procedures
9.00 a.m to 1.00 p.m	By the end of each day, learners will have - understand the purpose of the different text types - have been exposed to, and used some of, the technical terms for the different texts. - have examined the features of the text types. - have shared ideas with each other before writing. - have practiced editing their own work using a 'slow writing' technique - have written a portfolio of writing tasks
	Outcome: Write a factual recount	Outcome: Write a narrative	Outcome: Write an information report	Outcome: Write an exposition	Outcome: Write a procedure

Week 4: Adventures in Speaking and Writing P5-P6 (14 December to 18 December 2026)

Adventure through our speaking and writing focused week. With a new exciting, engaging, and communicative topic each day, learners will gain confidence reading aloud, presenting, and persuading their classmates. They'll be supported through interactive comprehension and composition tasks that will help motivate and prepare them for next year. Hands-on activities and critical thinking tasks will help develop their 21st century skills along with their academic skills. Come on an adventure with us this December!

Time	Monday 14 December	Tuesday 15 December	Wednesday 16 December	Thursday 17 December	Friday 18 December
	Topic: Advertising	Topic: Digital Citizens	Topic: Problem Solving	Topic: The Media	Topic: The Human Body
9.00 a.m to 1.00 p.m	By the end of each day, learners will have • Developed strategies for answering detailed text questions, • Build confidence in presenting and sharing ideas in front of the class, • Developed creativity and imagination, • Understood use of intonation for emotion and persuasion • Reflected on how healthy they and their classmates are • Learned language for presentations • Developed digital literacy skills through a research task
	Outcome: Create and present an advert for an invention	Outcome: Write an information report and present to classmates	Outcome: Write a procedure to solve a problem	Outcome: Write and perform a news report	Outcome: Write and present visual text of a fitness plan