Introduction

Cambridge English examinations are set by University of Cambridge, which is part of the Cambridge Assessment group. The Cambridge English General English suite of examinations has a wide choice of certificates reflecting people's very different needs and abilities. Cambridge English examinations are recognised around the world by thousands of employers, universities and government ministries as proof of ability to use English.

Cambridge English certificates never expire and will not need to be renewed — they are an achievement for life.

All Cambridge English examinations are aligned to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) - an internationally recognised benchmark of language ability.

The British Council in Singapore offers the Upper Main Suite examinations such as FCE, CAE and CPE.

What are FCE, CAE and CPE examinations?

All examinations test the four basic language skills – reading, writing, listening and speaking and also focus on grammar and vocabulary through the Use of English paper. Test structures are as below.

Cambridge English: First (FCE)

FCE is intended for people who can use everyday written and spoken English at an upper-intermediate level. It is an ideal exam for people who want to use English for work or study purposes.

Cambridge English: Advanced (CAE)

CAE is an exam for advanced users of English. This exam is intended for people who can use written and spoken English for most professional and social purposes. It is widely recognised for work and study.

Cambridge English: Proficiency (CPE)

CPE is Cambridge English most advanced exam. It is intended for people who can use English for any professional or study purposes.

Papers	FCE	CAE	CPE
Reading and Use of English	1 hr 15 min	1 hr 30 min	1 hr 30 min
Writing	1 hr 20 min	1 hr 30 min	1 hr 30 min
Listening	40 min	40 min	40 min
Speaking	14 min	15 min	16 min

Who can take Cambridge English examinations?

Anyone can take Cambridge English examinations as there are no age restrictions or basic qualifications needed to enter.

When are the examinations held?

Cambridge English examinations are held throughout the year. We have fixed test dates for listening, writing, use of English and listening papers. Speaking tests are conducted on separate days and confirmed speaking test dates will be available two to three weeks before all the papers start.

How do I register for examinations?

In order to sit for examination, you must register with British Council, Singapore by submitting an application form and a copy of NRIC or passport, whichever is applicable by the registration closing dates. Applications forms are available at our Customer Service Counters, Napier Road Centre; alternatively you may download the form from our website: www.britishcouncil.sg

You may submit the application form in person only. You have to pay the examination fee in full when you register.

If you register in person, you may pay by cash, NETS and credit cards (Visa/MasterCard).

Monday to Friday 10.00am to 6.00pm

Saturday 8.30am to 4.30pm

Closed on Sunday and Public Holidays

Notification of Examination

The British Council will email candidates of the details of the examinations (Statement of Entry, Notice to Candidate, date, time and venue) about 2-3 weeks before the written examination starts. Candidates are to follow the schedule of the examinations issued by the British Council.

How do I prepare for the examinations?

The British Council conducts exam preparation classes for FCE, CAE and CPE examinations. A number of preparation books are also available at our Resource Centre.

You can also find resources such as handbooks, sample papers and past year papers in Cambridge English examinations website - www.cambridgeenglish.org/prepare-and-practise/official-cambridge-english-preparation-materials/

Refund

A refund of 70% will be considered on a case-by-case basis if supported by an original medical certificate from a recognised medical practitioner. No refund will be given for any other reasons including clashes of dates with local examinations, personal and holiday arrangements.

The British Council reserves the right to cancel any examination and to refuse to accept any application for examination. If the British Council cancels examination, a full refund of registration fee will be made to candidates. The British Council also reserves the right to change examination dates if necessary.

Results & Certificates

Candidates can check their results by logging onto the Cambridge English website 6 weeks after the examination. Candidates will receive information before the exam on how to check exam results online, and the British Council does not send out paper copy Statement of Results.
