About IELTS

IELTS is a test that measures the language proficiency of those who want to study or work in environments where English is used as a language of communication.

There are two modules to choose from: IELTS Academic and IELTS General Training.

IELTS Academic

To study at the undergraduate or postgraduate level.

To join a professional organisation or registration in an English-speaking country.

IELTS General Training

To work or undertake work-related training in an English-speaking country.

To immigrate to an English-speaking country.

To study or train at below degree level.

Each organisation sets its own entry requirements. In some cases, both the Academic and General Training module may be accepted. If you are in doubt as to which module to take, you should contact the organisation to which you are applying to confirm their requirements.

IELTS for UKVI

'IELTS for UKVI' is a UK government-approved Secure English Language Test (SELT). This means that IELTS can be used to prove your English language abilities in support of a UK Visa and Immigration (UKVI) application.

To find out whether you need to take an approved SELT test, what level you need to achieve and which test you can use, please visit <http://www.ieltsasia.org/sg/study-in-uk/ukvi>.

The IELTS test format

The actual test taken is the same for both IELTS and IELTS for UKVI, with the same content, examiners, format, level of difficulty, scoring and so on. The only difference between the two is that IELTS for UKVI is administered in a test venue with video recording and CCTV facilities.
