

November/ December 2021 Holiday Study Camp Overview

Primary

Our year end programme focusses on learning all about our world through engaging and exciting topics with real world application. This holistic programme combines a focus on the academic skills needed for success at school and in exams, while building confidence in collaboration, public speaking, writing for different audiences and outcomes, critical thinking and sharing informed opinions.

Each week has a different theme in which learners will take part in hands-on activities and interactive learning, exploring language and developing the skills they need for future success.

Camps are Monday to Friday, 9.00 a.m. to 1.00 p.m.

Date	Age/Level	Camp name
Monday 22 to Friday 26 November	P1 to P2 P3 to P4 P5 to P6	Shout it Out: A speaking skills course
Communication is at the heart of this creative public speaking focused Study Camp. Help your Primary aged children build their confidence sharing their ideas and opinions, persuading their classmates, and telling stories. They'll practice reading aloud with feeling, interactive speaking skills, presentations, and using language to convince. Using stories and engaging texts, your child will have fun while getting ready for next year.
Monday 29 November to Friday 3 December	P1 to P2 P3 to P4 P5 to P6	Write All About it: A writing skills course
Producing different texts to create a Study Camp magazine is the theme of this writing skills week. Each day your child will focus on a different fictional or non-fiction writing text including poems, stories, informative and personal recounts, letters, and articles. Your child will work on four age-appropriate writing styles then collaborate with their classmates to turn these into a class magazine, demonstrating understanding of different purposes, styles and formatting.
Monday 6 to Friday 10 December	P1 to P2 P3 to P4 P5 to P6	The Write Way Forward: A Writing Skills Course
Problem solving and future thinking is the theme of this writing skills week. To solve critical issues facing our future, learners will have to use their writing to report, inform, instruct and persuade the public. They'll focus on non-fiction texts to develop the skills they'll need for their future writing success. They'll have demonstrated their understanding of issues, helping to build their world knowledge.

Monday 13 to Friday 17 December	P1 to P2 P3 to P4 P5 to P6	Act it Out: A Storytelling and Drama Skills Week

We know children love to express themselves, so bring them along to our drama and public speaking course.

P1-P4 Learners will explore plots, dialogue, characterisation, and presentations as they develop, rehearse and perform a short scene or play.

Our P5-P6 learners will explore their reading aloud, anecdote and factual presentation skills as they work towards developing a dialogue to rehearse and perform.

Help your child to develop their confidence through this interactive, collaborative, creative week. Parents are invited to watch the performances via zoom on the final day of Camp.
