

At the British Council, we believe students learn best when they are having fun and using English in a meaningful way. That is why our Holiday Study Camps use games, projects, drama and communicative activities to encourage students to work together, boosting their fluency and confidence alongside the more traditional skills such as vocabulary development, comprehension and composition.

Time	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
	The Future
9:30am-1:30pm	Topic: Life in the future Lesson Overview: Learn about how to describe life in the future, discuss daily life Project: Describe an area of life that might change in the future	Topic: The future's coming! Lesson Overview: Discuss inventions that might change our lives in the future, learn language to describe the, Project: Make a poster about an invention to improve everyday life	Topic: Future on the Farm Lesson Overview: Learn how to describe alien machines and their equipment Project: Design a machine to improve life on the farm.	Topic: In just a few years Lesson Overview: Read and understand future predictions, talk about how life will change in the future Project: Make a timeline to make predictions about how life will change in the future.	Topic: A futuristic school Lesson Overview: Read about a futuristic spy mission, predict the next part of the adventure Project: Design a school for the future.

At the British Council, we believe students learn best when they are having fun and using English in a meaningful way. That is why our Holiday Study Camps use games, projects, drama and communicative activities to encourage students to work together, boosting their fluency and confidence alongside the more traditional skills such as vocabulary development, comprehension and composition.

Time	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
	Help!
9:30am-1:30pm	Topic: Good Advice Lesson Overview: Understand, write and say advice for staying safe in the classroom and outdoors Project: Make a poster about staying safe in the classroom	Topic: Emergency Situations Lesson Overview: Read, write and say instructions for how to cope in an emergency Project: Write a news report about an emergency	Topic: Emergency on the Farm Lesson Overview: Learn about emergency situations and animals on the farm Project: Make a fact file explaining how different animals are dangerous to sheep	Topic: Cool Camp Smart Safety Lesson Overview: Read and understand a safety poster, discuss the purpose of different emergency services Project: Give a presentation on one of the emergency services.	Topic: Eric the Engine Lesson Overview: Watch and understand a story about avoiding an emergency Project: Write about what you should and shouldn't do in an emergency

At the British Council, we believe students learn best when they are having fun and using English in a meaningful way. That is why our Holiday Study Camps use games, projects, drama and communicative activities to encourage students to work together, boosting their fluency and confidence alongside the more traditional skills such as vocabulary development, comprehension and composition.

Time	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
	Into Space
9:30am-1:30pm	Topic: Exploring Space Lesson Overview: Learn about objects in space, learn new words to describe space Project: Draw and label a map of the solar system	Topic: Flying from the sun to the stars Lesson Overview: Learn interesting facts about the solar system, discuss space travel Project: Research and make a poster about two planets in the solar system	Topic: Shaun has visitors Lesson Overview: Talk about aliens, demonstrate comprehension of a video Project: Design, draw and present an alien	Topic: The Red Planet Lesson Overview: Learn about Mars and answer multiple-choice questions, complete a fact file Project: Write a postcard from another planet	Topic: The Cold Planet Lesson Overview: Listen and answer questions about a trip, discuss an adventure Project: Write about a trip to a newly discovered planet

At the British Council, we believe students learn best when they are having fun and using English in a meaningful way. That is why our Holiday Study Camps use games, projects, drama and communicative activities to encourage students to work together, boosting their fluency and confidence alongside the more traditional skills such as vocabulary development, comprehension and composition.

Time	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
	My Story
9:30am- 1:30pm	Topic: At home Lesson Overview: Talk about where I live now and where I've lived before Project: Research and write about a mysterious place	Topic: My life so far Lesson Overview: Listen to others sharing personal information about their lives, ask and answer questions Project: Make comic strip about your life so far	Topic: Around the World Lesson Overview: Learn about countries, their flags and customs, discuss where I've been Project: Write about a country you've lived in or visited	Topic: When I was little Lesson Overview: Share childhood activities, and make predictions about what my classmates were like Project: Present your favourite childhood memory	Topic: Interesting Lives Lesson Overview: Talk about events in the past and the stories we can learn from older people Project: Interview a person with an interesting life

At the British Council, we believe students learn best when they are having fun and using English in a meaningful way. That is why our Holiday Study Camps use games, projects, drama and communicative activities to encourage students to work together, boosting their fluency and confidence alongside the more traditional skills such as vocabulary development, comprehension and composition.

Time	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
	Think About Art
9:30am-1:30pm	Topic: What's your favourite art activity? Lesson Overview: Learn about adjectives to describe art, talk about your favourite types of art Project: Find and share examples of your favourite types of art	Topic: Let's talk about art! Lesson Overview: Learn how to give positive and negative opinions tactfully Project: Role play art critics discussing a piece of art	Topic: What do you need? Lesson Overview: Study vocabulary for art materials and how they're used, discuss abstract art Project: Make a piece of abstract art, label it with the materials you used	Topic: More types of art! Lesson Overview: Watch Shaun the sheep and discover different types of art, order instructions Project: Create an advert for a magical can of spray paint	Topic: I'm an artist Lesson Overview: Classify art and art equipment, learn about colour pairing, talk about creating a piece of art Project: Create a personal piece of art and write about what it means